

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2372

March 22, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Allows a driver under 18 who has committed a criminal offense to regain their driving privilege at age 18 if their sentence has been served for such offense even if the license revocation/suspension period has not expired. Provides that such individual would not be required to offer proof of financial responsibility or pay a license reinstatement fee.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $15,000 One-Time

Decrease State Revenues - Exceeds $100,000

Assumes:

- one-time increase in state expenditures for computer program changes.
- decrease in state revenues from the loss of reinstatement fees no longer paid by certain individuals pursuant to this act.
- in FY 1998-1999 there were in excess of 6,000 revocations and suspensions for criminal offenses by drivers under 18.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

HB 2372